

The signature, piece by piece

Every LAYL piece carries the same five details, so the brand is recognisable from across the court before anyone sees a logo. This is the Night Court Tee, the hero of the launch.

Three design rules

No sweat-show colours

Nothing in light grey or pale blue. Dark knits, or sand tones with texture.

Lime is light, not colour

Floodlight lime only appears as reflective trim, so it glows at night instead of shouting by day.

Dinner-ready cuts

Clean necklines, minimal branding, one crescent. It should pass at a restaurant at 11pm.
